

Amanda M. Homan passed her AIF exam

Amanda M. Homan, AIF®

Moorman, Harting Financial Services, Ltd. is proud to announce that Amanda M. Homan, Financial Advisor, has passed her AIF exam and awarded the Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF) designation from the Center of Fiduciary Studies. The AIF designation denotes specialized knowledge of fiduciary responsibility. The AIF designation holders are able to show that they are interested in and working towards the best interests of their clients. Amanda works out of the firm's Celina office. With her extensive professional education and experience she provides wealth care management services to the firm's financial services clients. Moorman, Harting & Co. is honored to have individuals, like Mandy, who proactively strive to advance the expertise and value of the firm.

Securities offered through 1st Global Capital Corp., Member FINRA, SIPC
Investment advisory services offered through 1st Global Advisors, Inc.
Insurance services offered through 1st Global Insurance Services, Inc.