Jenny provides accounting services for Moorman, Harting & Company. She is an enrolled Agent, which means she can represent taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service. She has been with Moorman, Harting & Company for over 19 years, since 1998, and has over 20 years experience. She provides the following services:

- Accounting services for a large number of individual clients and businesses, including partnerships, corporations, and limited liability companies
- Tax services for individuals and businesses
- Payroll services

Jenny is a graduate of St. Henry High School and Wright State University. She attends continuing education courses to ensure that quality service is provided to all her clients. Jenny resides in St. Henry with her husband, Todd and their three children.

“It’s fulfilling doing what I enjoy and knowing I am helping my clients with their accounting and tax needs.”
