

Samuel J. Moorman

Certified Public Accountant

Phone: 419-678-4814

Fax: 419-678-2752

smoorman@moormanharting.com

Sam is the senior member of Moorman, Harting & Company, He and his brother purchased the business from Anthony F. Moorman, Founder of the firm. Sam has been instrumental in the development of the firm since 1967. Sam is still retained by the firm part time for expertise in:

- Succession plans, farm transfers, business combinations and buy-sell agreements
- Federal, state, and local income taxation
- Estate and gift tax considerations and strategies

Sam is a graduate of Coldwater High School and Miami University. He continues to attend professional education courses and maintains his credentials of the CPA profession and tax advisor. Sam and his wife, Lilly, have been lifetime residents of the local area. They have 6 adult children and 11 grandchildren.

“Understanding the needs and gaining the trust of the client is always first and primary for the firm. Doing it “right” the first time, and on every occasion, continues to be the foundation of the firm.”

Sam